Las Peliculas De Tin Tan Emilio Garcia Riera

Según el autor de este libro, su "noble, limpia y total disposición al placer" lo hizo ajeno al sentimiento de culpa y a la solemnidad falsamente constructivas. Jamás rebajó "a lágrimas o reproche" -diría Borges- su gracia, su simpatía, su inventiva, su agilidad, su espontaneidad, sus grandes dotes para la música y el baile. Esta cualidad de Tin Tan reculta muy notable en el cine mexicano al que se sumó, un cine entonces "infectado de melodrama" en el que hasta "los actores cómicos de primer plano se dieron en algún momento al mensaje edificante y a la lágrima piadosa", dice García Riera en este libro. Son rasgos distintivos de Germán Valdés su extrema prodigalidad, que le ganó amigos entrañables en todos sus compañeros de trabajo, a quienes nunca opacaron sus excesos de protagonismo, y una inteligencia del lenguaje inseparable, según Carlos Monsiváis, de su actitud corporal, de su "anarquismo alivianado", que produjo creaciones memorables en el habla de México. No todas las 99 películas en las que participó como actor, a veces como productor y autor de canciones y una vez como director -El capitán Mantamaya- alcanzaban la calidad de Ay Amor Cómo Me Has Puesto, El Rey Del Barrip Las películas de Tin Tan contiene una introducción caracterizadora de la carrera cinematográfica de Germán Valdés, seguida de una nota biográfica -no exhaustiva: lo privado cuenta qui por su relación con el cine y no al revés-, y analiza todos sus trabajos para el cine, ofreciendo de cada uno de ellos ficha completa, sinopsis de argumento -salvo excepcionales cintas en el extranjero de las que no hay datos accesibles- y comentarios del autor del libro, que incluyen los de otras voces autorizadas, con la excelente y muy amplia ilustración iconográfica. Se completa con un índice alfabético de películas y un índice onomástico que facilitan la ubicación de las obras y personas nombradas.
