Charlie is finally reuniting with Ash, who is coming home after years of military service. The two met five years ago when their parents married, and even though they knew it was taboo, they fell hard for each other. It was tough enough for Charlie to see him go, but when she was struck with cancer during his deployment, she wasn't sure if she would ever see him come home. Luckily, she's a fighter and managed to make it through the chemo, and three years later, she's back to her old, curvy self.

After being away and lonely, Ash has come back to make Charlie his. Although there is stigma around the fact that she's his stepsister, he won't give up until he gets what he wants. Find out what happens when the two finally surrender to their desires once and for all.
