Defending the Declaration: How the Bible and Christianity Influenced the Writing of the Declaration of Independence Gary T. Amos

After ten years of research and four years of writing, Dr. Gary Amos reveals that the evidence from primary sources is irrefutable: underlying the Declaration of Independence is a foundation of Biblical principles and Christian influence. The Bible and Christianity -- not deism and secularism -- were the most important influences on the framers. Amos laments that America's educational system denies or ignores almost all this evidence. Evidence he believes to be undeniable. Visit our website for other books and information: providencefoundation.com
