Come for the mystery, stay for the romance...

It was the night at Holyrood Palace that did it. Over a badly mangled dinner, cooked by the Prince of Wales himself, Trudy Rue began to fall for the most famous bachelor in the world.

If only she weren't so caught up in the dastardly murder of her ex, maybe Trudy could enjoy her promotion to head biographer at Schnellings Publishing and the new found perks of having the attention of Prince Alex George Horatio Tallyho Windsor, or whatever his official name is.

But mixing with royalty is hard. Especially when one has the social skills of a telephone pole.

With a handsome prince, multiple suspects, irrelevant historical facts uttered at inconvenient times, outrageous lifestyles of privilege, and crocheted tea cozies that look like meatloaf, The Prince and I is a tale of love and suspense.

Because after a lifetime of dealing with frogs, someday Trudy's prince will come...maybe.
