Bibliography of Native American Bibliographies (Bibliographies and Indexes in Ethnic Studies) Phillip M. White

This book serves as the first and only master listing of bibliographies in the field of American Indian studies. It includes all significant bibliographies, in print and online, concerning Native Americans in the United States and Canada from the earliest times through 2003. This unique book is a timeless resource for all levels of Native American research.

Over 800 bibliographies on American Indians of the United States and Canada are described under categories by tribes and topics. Descriptive and critical annotations are provided for each bibliography. An index leads researchers to specific subjects, alternate tribal names, and authors.
