Warren Redfeather is a roadman, a Native American shaman and member of the Native American Church. He travels the West performing ritual services. This is the story of one such road trip. Starting in Washington state and circling down through Oregon, California and Arizona, ending up in New Mexico to visit an old friend. The band of characters are quirky and genuine, inviting the reader to laugh and to cry with them. Come along with Warren Redfeather for this, his last road trip.
