When Jasmine met Jerome, a young club owner from the South Side of Miami, she instantly felt a connection. Their relationship progresses fast, and soon they are engaged. Although she loved him, she wasn't completely ready to walk down the aisle. With all sorts of insecurities it soon becomes plain why she should've trusted her gut instincts. When Jerome is caught in a compromising position with her best friend, in steps Khalil, Jerome's extremely handsome brother. Their steamy affair is just the payback Jerome deserves...or so she thinks. Through multiple affairs, break-ups, make-ups and drama coming from every direction, Jasmine decides to leave her relationship and friendships behind. Meanwhile, things aren't going so great for those she walked away from. With every one questioning the validity of their relationships, nothing is what it seems in this fast-paced cautionary tale. Everyone has something to prove, and with manipulation coming from all sides, it shows that these friends are only capable of doing one thing...being relentlessly unfaithful.
