Sugar Crash Elena Aitken

She's been on her own for so long that when Darci Thompson's 12-year-old daughter, Taylor, is diagnosed with a life changing illness, she must push past her self imposed walls to prove that Diabetes won't define them.

With the help of new friends and Cam, a man who believes in her, Darci finds the strength to challenge the stereotypes and make a difference for her daughter. But letting Cam get close also means being vulnerable. Is Darci willing to face her own demons and take that risk once again?

A story about the strength of one woman and the power of her relationship with her daughter as they overcome life's obstacles.

~Inspired by real life events!~

Portions of the proceeds will be donated to the Canadian Diabetes Association
