Mei Li Breakwell was born in a small town in China and taken from her family as an infant. She exchanged homes with an abandoned baby and grew up with a shameful nickname. She was taught that there was no God and that humans evolved from monkeys. She'd never heard of the Christian Gospel, seen a church building, or read the Bible. She searched for true love until her heart was completely broken. One day she found herself trapped in the ocean and feared for her life. Then everything changed. The following is Mei Breakwell's exciting story of how she escaped a near-death experience and found the life-changing love of Jesus Christ.
