Station Eleven: A Detailed Summary About This Book Of Emily St. John Mandel !

Station Eleven is a novel written by Emily St. John Mandel with interesting plot; there was an end of the world as we know it, hence of the hyper-pandemic flu, which killed more than ninety percent of humans on our beloved planet Earth.

The novel revolves around many events that follow the post-pandemic world, as we read about several characters and their attempts to live in a world, where there is hardly any chance for life whatsoever.

The most promising part of the novel is where we read about normal, everyday people, which are trying to live some kind of life, despite the death and everyday threats of deadly disease.

Readers who like novels about post-apocalyptic events, such as zombie outbreaks, deadly diseases, nuclear wars, etc. will find themselves on a familiar ground and will enjoy reading Station Eleven.

Those who do not find novels of this genre to be on their list of their favorites may still enjoy Station Eleven, because it gives good description of how people act and react in a crisis situation.
