Their love started a legacy. Now you can read the full story in one special boxed set edition with exclusive bonus content you won't find anywhere else.

James Morgan never really believed in love. That is, until he laid eyes on Deborah Walker at the local soda fountain. He surprises himself by inviting her out for an impromptu night on the town, and she shocks him even more by agreeing. As the night progresses, the two share their past histories and secret dreams, and James realizes that she is the perfect woman for him. The only problem is that he ships off to Korea the next morning. Fulfilling his duty is non-negotiable to James, even if fighting for his country will ultimately break both of their hearts.

Deborah promises to wait for him, but two years is a long time to put her life on hold, especially for a man she only knew for one day. When Rip Rockwell returns from the war and James does not, Rip proposes marriage to Deborah. She agrees and they build a beautiful life together until his death fifty years later. Through it all, though, she can never quite forget her first love. She retires to Abeline, expecting to live out the rest of her days in peace. So imagine her surprise when James Morgan moves in next door...

Both lived lives full of love. Both lost their loves too early. Can James and Deborah form a new life together while cherishing their memories of those that still live in their hearts?

This special boxed set edition includes:

- My Heart Belongs to Only You, Deborah's bittersweet love story with Rip
- I'll Never Stop Loving You, James's meant-to-be-no-matter-what love story with Gloria
- When I Fall in Love & You Make Me Feel So Young, previously published shorts about James and Deborah
- Look Homeward Angel, a new short story about Rip and Deborah's new life in Alaska
- All I Have to Do is Dream, a new short story about James and Gloria's new life as parents
- A family tree and suggested reading order list for all three generations of the Cupid's Bow series
- A foreword from the author discussing her personal connection to the characters and settings

...And this is just the beginning. Read more about James and Deborah, both apart and together. Watch as their children fall in love in the 1980s, and their grandchildren today. This sweeping family saga of loves both lost and found makes for the perfect sweet reading addiction. Because, after all, everyone deserves to find love that lasts.
