• This Guidebook is an accompaniment to third unit of the Me Complete! Early Learning Program, Volume 3. This third unit “Me and My Family” provides innovative teaching materials for building literacy and numeracy skills in preschoolers that extend and expand these essential academic skills in a variety of ways. This guidebook also provides an overview of preschool programming including learning centers, daily routines, and types of learning activities. Furthermore, it provides direction on how to use the various contents of this early learning set. The complete unit can be purchased at www.earlylearninginnovationsllc.com. "Me and My Family" includes activities and materials for topics including families, homes, houses, Thanksgiving, and Native American homes. It also includes a compilation of 70+ activities for individual and group learning through hands-on and direct experience with emphasis on scientific discovery and language development! The activities are integrated across language, mathematics, science, social studies, music, art, movement, health, and safety concepts. In addition, ideas for introducing the unit, parent involvement, and environmental enhancement are offered. Fun and interaction are key elements for early learning and each of the Me Complete! Sets delivers both!
