Cry of the Firebird (The Firebird Fairytales Book 1) Amy Kuivalainen

Twenty-eight-year-old Anya is reeling from the murder of her grandfather when a strange man in a black suit pays her a visit at a small café. But this is no ordinary man. He's Tuoni, a Finnish god, here to explain to her that, for centuries, her family has protected the gates to the Otherworld. Anya must awaken the dormant magic inside her, or the weakening gates will open and both the real world and the Otherworld will be destroyed.

Joined by a Skazki prince who can transform into the legendary firebird, Anya is hunted by the prince's dark-magic-wielding brother, and they are forced to flee to Skazki for safety. There, they meet a host of friendly and hostile forces, and Anya learns the secret history of her family. But Anya's magic is unstable, and she finds herself returning to the real world.

Will she finally awaken and master the power inside of her? Or will the dark forces prevail and seize control of the gates?

Steeped in Finnish and Russian mythology, Cry of the Firebird is a dark urban fantasy about the power of magic and the forces on both sides that seek to control it.
