Hinds' Feet on High Places: An Allegory Dramatizing the Journey Each of Us Must Take Before We Can Live in "High Places" Hannah Hurnard

Who does not wish that they could overcome evil, tribulation, sorrow, and pain, and transform them all for the praise and glory of God? Who does not want to live here on earth on the high places of love and victory as promised by God? This cannot be done by reliance on ourselves alone. We must lay down our own selfish will and accept the liberation of living according to God's will. Hinds' Feet on High Places shows us how we can triumph over evil and pain, grief and suffering by placing ourselves in the hands of God, who wants to bring all his children to him.
