Skype's Lure Angel Leya

Can saving a human really lead to the destruction of her people?

Skype is a good little Mer, following her elder's instruction and staying away from humans. But when a party ship cruises through her part of the sea, Skype ends up saving Vince, a man, from drowning - a crime punishable by death. When the ship comes back, so does she.

Lured by the promise of seeing land and the handsome Vince, Skype boards the ship, but finds that Vince may not be as trustworthy as she first thought. Now it's a race to save herself and her people from exposure and destruction.

Angel Leya enjoys retelling fairy tales in new and intriguing ways, but she wants readers to know that Skype is no Ariel and Vince is no Prince. In this urban fantasy, female protagonist Skype must struggle to learn the truth about herself, her people and Vince before her actions destroy everything she holds dear. With the help of the elusive Sea King, will Vince become a merman, or will the two choose to be human? It's anything but the traditional fairytale retellings we all know.
