Cali Bloom expected the diner job to be boring, until she's served her just desserts.

Mick Thomas is making a run for his crew when he stops for a bite and realizes that Cali Bloom was just what his appetite craved.

Stepping up to the counter and sweeping off his leather cap, Mick had Cali breathing in time with his booted steps.

Small town life can drag like a limp foot on a busted up rail dog, and the loneliness is worse. Cali didn't care if she lost the job or not, feeling Mick's eyes burning through her uniform started a fire she couldn't contain.
