The Shifting Fog (Chinese Edition) Kate Morton

Under an old maple tree up on the hill, symphony orchestra and the violin were playing beautiful music which lingering in warm air. Laughters and tinkling of crystal wine cups could sometimes be heard. There are also beaful fireworks blossoming in the sky. Peng! A red flam fell down. Leaving everything in a mess. A mess that destroyed everything. I have been trying to forget that night. I never ventured into talking about that tragedy seventy years ago. But now, I have to tell the truth...
