It's amazing how one moment can change a life instantly. Everything is going along perfectly and then WHAM; you are flat of your back wondering what the heck just happened. Newlyweds, Jason and Jessica Grant thought that their life was perfect. Still in the honeymoon stage of their recent marriage, they were living the American dream. They enjoyed spending time with their very small group of devoted friends. Each had a job they loved, a beautiful home, plenty of toys, good health and were now trying to conceive their first baby. Life couldn't be any better, but it could definitely be worse. In one breath taking moment, everything changed. When Jessica opened a mysterious envelope that was delivered to the Grant's mailbox, their happy world came crashing down around them and burst into flames. Even a seasoned fireman like Jason wondered if he would be able to extinguish the flames that were about to devour his marriage. The question that haunts his dreams.....Can true love endure all things???
