Studyworks: Shortcuts, Strategies and Secrets for the SAT Miles Pewitt, Anna Coats

Why should I prepare? In a perfect world, good students with good grades would not have to worry about the SAT. Success in school would translate into worry-free success on the SAT. The unfair reality is that, unfortunately, not all good students do well on the SAT. Success on the SAT is not always guaranteed by a high GPA in high school. Remember, high SAT scores are not determined by what you know or how much you memorize, but by how you think. Studyworks teaches students how to use logic skills in order to think their way through the test.
