Forever Three Tom Winton

Successful author and all around nice guy Dean Cassidy has lived with the misfortune of loving two women for far too long. Although he deeply loves his wife of twenty-two years, he just can't shake his haunting memories of his childhood sweetheart, Theresa Wayman. Never has the sun set on a day when images of Theresa haven't raided his mind--images gilded with the golden memories of youth. But now things are getting worse. A string of events occur that suddenly tighten the torturous triangle in on him like a three-sided vice.

Day after day Dean is pummeled by a soul-numbing succession of guilt and uncertainty. Alone in his inner battle, he feels himself getting closer to the edge of madness. Then, to make matters even worse, he suddenly comes face to face with the worst tragedy of his life. But the human spirit does not destruct easily. It is resilient and tenacious. And as close to going down as Dean is, he's determined to keep swinging until the very end.

If ever there has been a story to give voice to the joy and pain of love, it's Forever Three--the stand-alone sequel to internationally acclaimed bestseller Beyond Nostalgia.
