Logan Seagate hadn't bargained on making friends with a secretive, wealthy and mysterious family when he'd trespassed onto the private beach by abseiling down a sheer cliff that morning. All he'd wanted to do was forget about how mad he was at his father for awhile. Would he ever be able to put aside how hurt he was and get on with his life?

Instead of some time to himself though, Logan meets the adventurous and imaginative Meeka and her very cool parents. It seems like she can climb even better than him—not that he'd tell her that! After spending a thrilling and fun day rock climbing then motocross and Ferrari racing, he finally realizes his mysterious new friends are not only wealthy but incredibly famous. Even better, with their help it looks like that elusive sense of belonging is within his grasp.

Until his older foster brother shatters his hopes for his new friendship that is.

But it's not just his happiness that is at stake. His suspicions of a smuggling ring turn into reality, putting Meeka and his life plus the lives of his foster family at risk. Caught by the ruthless smugglers they are all tied up and threatened with murder. A bigger shock is still to come, one that will hit Logan the hardest. But there is no time to deal with it because before he knows it he and Meeka are trapped in a burning building. With the flames getting higher, how can they possibly escape and rescue the people that matter the most to him?

The Trespasser is a heart-warming mystery and suspense crime for kids story adventure book (for young teens and 9-12 year olds).
