Richard Garcia

After just three months in their new home, Michael Murray has lost it all – the job, the house and the rose-tinted future for his beautiful children. An extensive internet search sends some seemingly good luck his way, but the 8-bedroom house at a knock-down price quickly becomes too good to be true.

The once familiar eyes of his youngest daughter send shivers down his spine and the life he worked so hard for begins to crumble around him. If only he knew the cause.
