René Descartes

René Descartes (1596 – 1650) was a French philosopher, mathematician and writer who spent most of his life in the Dutch Republic. He has been dubbed the father of modern philosophy, and much subsequent Western philosophy is a response to his writings, which are studied closely to this day. In particular, his Meditations on First Philosophy continues to be a standard text at most university philosophy departments.

His best known philosophical statement is "Cogito ergo sum", found in part IV of Discourse on the Method and §7 of part I of Principles of Philosophy.
